SCRL Book Review

By Jen Turano

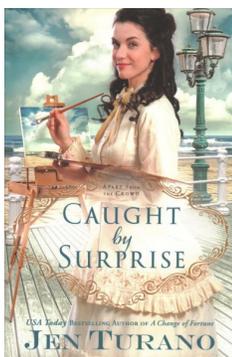

Inspirational Adult Fiction

Reviewed by Lena-Winkler Summer Reading Programmer

Caught by Surprise is the last book in Jen Turano's Apart From the Crowd series and it is most definitely my favorite. Turano's humor is alive from the very first page to the last. This book is about Miss Temperance Flowerdew, a young woman who gets snatched off the street and put on a train, and Mr. Gilbert Cavendish, who is called on to find a missing woman, who turns out to be his good friend Temperance.

Temperance is a free spirit and an independent woman and Gilbert is the exact opposite, an organized man who has a list for everything.

This book has the perfect mix of humor, romance and action. It includes a case of mistaken identity, attempted murder, hilarious attempts at romantic gestures and humorous banter between Temperance and Gilbert. As a friends-to-more, opposites attract book, it's pure gold. Definitely worth a read!

Miami's Book, Bake Sale and Tie-Dye Event!

Miami library will be participating in the Miami Community Showcase happening August 19th.

Stop by for our book & bake sale, and check out some other local vendors while you're at it! You can find us outside the library on the east side of the building from 3-7pm.

Tie-dying will also be taking place at our booth-so make sure you stop by with something to dye!

Acorns to Oaks

SCRL will be starting a new program for children called Acorns to Oaks!

This program is an intergenerational program designed to help your child develop essential skills to prepare for Kindergarten. The Acorns to Oaks program is for children aged three-and-a-half to five years old who are not currently in Kindergarten. The program is set to run from Sept-Dec. Please watch our social media for more in depth information on the program, and watch for registration dates as well!
